Tariff Off At Last!
H. M. MAXWELL, desires the COURTESY to state to the Democrats and Republicans of the surrounding country, that he has taken the tariff by the horns, and is selling goods at ridiculously low prices.
—The wharftown was loaded Monday night of sundry packages of freight, valued at about $10, on Monday night the amount of H. C. Judge was entered and 50 packs from the cash drawer. The lately thieves are at their work again, and will necessitate a few shelving being set for them.
—Four hundred Fulton county Democratic voters "stayed at home" in the last two county races, and the "stay-at-homes" came very near letting the Republican raptars take the State. Let every Democrat who reads this make himself a civic and elector to get at least one of these "stay-at-homes" in the polls Tuesday week.
